Hello Poker friends,

As promised we will begin to publicize an English version of all the major announcements. These will not be word by word translations, but the points that need to be made will be made.

It is unbelievable... I am so proud of you and our Verein.

Yesterday we had 45 participants (!!!) in our freeze out tournament. As a result we also had more sit&go tables (9). All this was made possible because all of us, and I underline ALL, have made every effort to get new players to come out. I will hereby encourage you to continue. We still have a far way to go.

Thanks to Atze we had a second 10-person table. We are working on having another 10-person and a 8-person table for next Thursday. Also the lighting on the side tables will be improved.

The path that we are on is good and I am convinced that our Board will meet the challenges ahead. I can only repeat... If you have suggestions... MAKE THEM. I always have an ear for good ideas.

Don't forget... Next weekend is our monthly event 'heads up'. Don't miss it. You would regret it. I promise!!

Our homepage is complete for the present. We will add more info and updates in the next days. Take a look at the statutes for the Poker league. Unfortunately I don't have a translation yet, but I am working on it. Try to get the points anyway. It should be possible. I also put out a sample pay-out plan so everyone can see how the pay out is planned and how the money will be allocated. One of our main objectives is transparency so all can see what is being done, to include our finances. Also look around and see who you would want to be on a team with. 3 players are always needed to play. Substitutes are possible, so I expect most teams to have 4-5 players.

We will see each other on Thursday after a great turkey meal.

Furthermore GOOD DRAWS,

Ray
